Newsletter

Hello Families,
Welcome back to our semi-monthly newsletter, where we share important information for the month of March and a reminder of our current programming that we are offering.

We currently have open spots for the breakfast and evening programs; you can check out all of our programs here.

Going forward we are going to try to stick to providing a monthly newsletter so families can stay up to date with everything BGC-related.

Stay Warm,
BGC Charlottetown Team
